In this newsletter:
- New internships & job opportunities
- Upcoming events
- Publication Opportunities

Follow Us On Facebook! http://www.facebook.com/GWPoliticalScience
Follow Us On Instagram! @GWU_PSC
Paid Opportunities

NEW POSTING!
Senator Pat Roberts’ office is looking for paid interns for the spring semester.

Why DC:
· Nation’s Capital
· DC is filled with historical monuments, museums and buildings to fit any interest. Plus, plenty of famous restaurants
· Hub for advocacy groups, political organizations, policy writing and democracy
· In 2013, DC was the top most popular city for young adults

Why Intern:
· Provides a unique experience working with Senate staff and Senator Roberts
· See how policy is created and the legislative process from writing the bill to final voting/passage on the Senate floor
· Learn history about the United States and the founding of our nation
· Learn about the US Capitol building and other historical monuments and buildings unique to DC
· Network with other young professionals from Kansas and all over the US
· Network with Kansans working in the US Senate and in the DC area
· Learn how the Federal Government affects Kansas and you

What major do I need?:
· All majors are welcome. Interns do not need a political science background to complete an application
· There is not a major that isn’t applicable to DC and legislative policy
· Looking for well-rounded, unique individuals interested in different aspects of policy

Application Deadline:
· Summer semester: March 15
· Spring Semester: November 30

How long does the internship last?:
· Summer long session: May 16-July 15 (flexible on start/end dates)
· Fall: September-December
· Spring: January-May

Where do I live?:
· DC is full of young professionals in the summer, finding roommates is a great way to network and meet new people
· DC has plenty of housing options, each intern is responsible for their own housing

Is this a paid internship?:
· Currently, internships are paid

How do I apply?:
Fill out the application online http://www.roberts.senate.gov/public/index.cfm?p=Internships email it to Laura Schlapp: Laura_Schlapp@Roberts.Senate.Gov
December 2016

Careers in Community Organizing for Social Justice

MSSC is hosting a representative from The Direct Action & Research Training (DART) Center for an info session on Thursday, November 17 at noon in MSSC 104 to discuss careers in community organizing with individuals interested in uniting congregations and working for social, economic and racial justice.

RSVP at www.thedartcenter.org/gw

DART hires and trains organizers to build organizations that have successfully addressed issues including:

* Plugging the school-to-prison pipeline
* Reining in predatory lending practices
* Expanding access to primary health and dental care
* Prioritizing funding for affordable housing and job training
* Education reform in low-performing public schools
* Fighting for immigrants’ rights

Positions start January 9, 2017 in Charleston, SC, Topeka, KS, Lawrence, KS and Tampa, FL.

Positions start August 14, 2017 in Richmond, VA, Louisville, KY, Daytona Beach, Ft. Lauderdale and St. Petersburg, FL.

Starting salary $34,000/year + benefits.

Although it may be helpful, no prior organizing experience is necessary. Fluent Spanish speakers are encouraged to apply.

To find out more about DART or to apply, we encourage you to visit www.thedartcenter.org. Still have questions? Contact Hannah Wittmer at hannah@thedartcenter.org or (202) 841-0353.

---

Spiros Consulting, a national Democratic opposition research firm is currently looking for interns for Spring 2016. We do research and policy work for candidates and interest groups across the country.

Candidates should be at least in their sophomore year, have a strong understanding of national politics, and be able to work 15-20 hours a week. Campaign experience is a major plus, but not a requirement.

This is a paid internship with a $2,000 stipend for the semester.

Anyone's who is interested can forward their resume to interns@spirosconsulting.com
Winter 2017 - Federal Relations Internship

API is looking for a GWU student strongly interested in the following areas:
• Political Science
• Public Relations
• Domestic Policy
• Communications
• Energy

Internship responsibilities include:
• Scheduling meetings with Congressional and Executive Branch staff.
• Attending Congressional hearings and briefing the API federal lobbying team.
• Attending various events and forums and briefing the API federal lobbying team.
• Creating and maintaining up-to-date member and staff lists, whip lists, and talking points.
• Reading and summarizing legislation.
• Researching and summarizing issues and areas of importance for the advocacy team.
• Accompanying the federal lobbying team to meetings with congressional staff and federal agencies.

The selected intern will be limited to 30 hours per week over 90 calendar days of employment. Interns will be paid $15.00 per hour. Attendance at occasional evening or weekend events is optional and strongly encouraged.

If you are interested in this paid, part-time internship opportunity, please apply for Intern - January 2017 using the link below: https://workforcenow.adp.com/jobs/apply/posting.html?client=api-api&jobId=19263&lang=en_US&source=CC3
2017 SUMMER GOVERNMENT INTERNSHIP (933BR)

Job Description:
United Launch Alliance (ULA) summer internships are 10-weeks in length. This intern position offers an opportunity to work within the Government Relations/Communications Department. This opportunity will offer challenges in government outreach. Interns will typically support one or more experienced business professionals in performance of assignments, spend time shadowing actual operations, and have unique assignments that support larger projects as well as experience the day-to-day workings of the business side of the aerospace industry. Interns may perform and/or participate in additional activities/events which help them build a strong network within the ULA community and with fellow interns.

A taxable housing/transportation stipend may be provided to obtain housing near the ULA work location if the successful candidate's permanent home address and current college address are both greater than 50 miles from the assigned ULA work location.

IMPORTANT: After a candidate applies to the appropriate requisition on-line and if the candidate meets the basic qualifications as listed, a member of the ULA staffing team may further screen resumes to determine which candidates meet the position basic qualifications (requirements). Those meeting all job basic qualifications and key preferred skills may be forwarded to the hiring manager for review. The manager will then review both the resume and transcript of a candidate prior to conducting a phone interview. Based on the results of the phone interviews, an offer for employment may be extended to the best qualified applicant as long as the candidate does not withdraw from consideration.

Basic Qualifications:
United Launch Alliance (ULA) summer internships are 10 weeks in length.

Applicant must meet ALL of the following qualifications to be considered for this position:
- You must be 18 years of age by the start of the summer internship assignment
- You must be a US Citizen or US Person
- You must be in your third year of Political Science, or Public Policy studies
- You must be planning on graduating with a Bachelors degree in Political Science, Public Policy or a related field of study with an emphasis in government/law and entering the workforce on a full time basis between December 2017 and December 2018
- You must have experience with Congress
- ULA has a minimum college GPA requirement of 2.90 of a 4.00 scale; cumulative, no rounding.

NOTE: To complete your application and be considered, you must submit your unofficial transcript. If you are selected for an internship, you must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.90 after each completed semester/term. Note that ULA only considers the cumulative GPA listed on the unofficial/official transcript provided by the institution that the candidate currently attends.

Preferred Requirements:
- Interested in pursuing a long-term career in government
- Current or previous experience in Political Science, Public Policy or government
- Experience working independently and in a team environment
- Experience with effective communication skills (verbal and written; including presentations skills)
- Basic understanding of the US government structure
- Depending on your year in school, examples of completed coursework should include but not be limited to: History, US Government Studies, Politics, and Polling
- Experience and ability to develop written content including graphics and charts
- Involvement and completion of class projects related to US Government

How to Apply:
To be considered for a position, the candidate MUST APPLY ONLINE. EMAIL/PHONE/FAX WILL NOT be accepted. Please follow this link to apply to one of the following requisitions:
http://www.ulalaunch.com/site/pages/Careers.shtml
Internships

NEW POSTING!
JDA Frontline, a fully integrated public affairs company, is looking for dynamic and motivated students interested in gaining hands-on experience from a group of strategic communications professionals.

Overview
JDA interns work side-by-side with a team that is focused on the evolution of the media environment, public opinion and policy-maker viewpoints, as it plans and executes public policy and issue management campaigns. As an intern, you will be exposed to an ever-growing arsenal of public affairs tools. Interns learn directly from their experience assisting with public affairs, marketing and media activities and developing the skills necessary for an exciting career in public affairs. Course credit is available depending on curriculum requirements.

Duties
JDA interns assist with activities such as media monitoring, drafting and distributing press releases, client research, campaign development, strategic planning and media relations.

Requirements:
Qualified candidates will meet the following requirements:
☐ Must be a full time college student
☐ Willing to commit to a weekly schedule
☐ Must posses excellent written, verbal and creative thinking skills
☐ Must be self motivated and ready to contribute to a team environment

Interested candidates should send their resume, cover letter, and available writing samples to Isabel Rollison by email (rollison@jdafrontline.com). To learn more about JDA Frontline visit www.jdafrontline.com.

NEW POSTING!
We are currently seeking interns interested in money-in-politics reform to join the Issue One team in making our government one that is truly ‘of, by, and for the people.’ Our interns are integral members of the team and will gain hands-on experience in development, communications, event planning, and many other areas. To apply, please email a cover letter and resume to Claire Gollegly at jobs@issueone.org.

For more information, please visit our website: https://www.issueone.org.
NEW POSTING!
The Office of U.S. Congressman Steve Russell (OK-5) is accepting applications for Spring 2017 internships. Prospective interns should be responsible, motivated, organized, and enthusiastic. Qualifying candidates must have a 3.0 GPA or higher, strong writing and communication skills, and work well under pressure. Duties may include fielding phone calls, conducting legislative research, giving U.S. Capitol tours, maintaining the front office, processing mail, and assisting staff as needed. This is an excellent educational opportunity for college students who are interested in the legislative process and are seeking practical, hands-on experience in a congressional office. Applicants should be available full- or part-time from January to mid-May; start and end dates are negotiable and Oklahoma ties are a plus. Internships are unpaid, but academic credit is available. For more information and to apply, please visit: https://russell.house.gov/services/internships. Deadline to apply is December 12, 2016.

NEW POSTING!
Admissions for City Internships’ 2017 programs will launch officially next week on Tuesday, December 6th at 3PM Eastern. This launch will accompany the release of the new website, which includes detailed information on new programs and locations, as well as curriculum details and alumni features.

Students should apply for early consideration here: www.city-internships.com/apply/

For 2017, we will be offering two core program types:

- Global Explorer Program:
  8-week immersive internship + Career Navigator Series + Future Leaders Series + Group Events & Excursions.

- Global Accelerator Program:
  2-week intensive course* + 6-week high-impact internship + Career Navigator Series + Future Leaders Series + Group Events & Excursions.

* Courses in: Investment Banking; Digital Marketing; Coding & Design; Business Development & Sales.
 More than 65 per cent of our alumni get hired by their host company. Your internship may be extended beyond 8 or 6-weeks at your and your host company’s wish.

For 2017, we will be offering spring, summer, autumn and winter programs in 12 locations:

- London, Paris (Closed), New York, Boston, Washington D.C., Miami, Chicago, Austin (Closed), Los Angeles, San Francisco, Sydney (Closing soon) or Hong Kong (Closing soon).

With internship placements in 9 industries:
International Student Career Ambassador

International Student Career Ambassadors serve the entire GW international student population, supplementing the professional career services provided by all career centers on campus. Ambassadors receive extensive training and supervision to develop their job search, resume and cover letter writing, communication skills, online presence, and knowledge of on-campus resources. International Student Career Ambassadors will work with students individually and in small groups to facilitate career development, modeling professionalism, as well as using their own campus networks for outreach.

Hiring Ambassadors for the SPRING Semester 2017.

RESPONSIBILITIES:
- Greet and assist patrons who drop-in the International Student Resource Rooms (located in the Science and Engineering Hall) in a welcoming manner
- Provide feedback and general resources to students on individual resumes, cover letters, and online presence during in person drop-in hours
- Assist SEAS (School of Engineering & Applied Science) Career Services Fellow in the creation and execution of workshops to student groups and student organizations during afternoon/evening hours
- Market services offered, programs, and events through information delivery and outreach activities
- Answer questions regarding individual career-related issues and refer students accordingly to professional resources and/or career administrator
- Provide guidance in navigating printed and electronic career resource materials
- Maintain and update International Student Resource Room (SEH) materials and handouts of resources pertaining to a variety of career development issues
- Assist with administrative functions such as filing, copying and general data entry
- Support Career Services staff during special events and programs such as Career Fair, presentations, and information sessions
- Attend scheduled meetings with SEAS Graduate Career Team.

Only non GRA/GTA applicants should apply. (Can not be considered if you already are receiving funding from a department, ie. stipend/tuition).

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS
- Sophomore/Junior international undergraduate students or international graduate students preferred
- Preference given to student with prior student services, career services, job or internship experience.
- Minimum time commitment of 10 to 15 hours per week for a full academic year
- Additionally, must be available to work from 5-9pm at least one evening per week for events; occasional weekend events
- Strong cross-cultural skills
- Must be reliable
- Good academic standing with leadership potential
- Team worker with good written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to work with minimum supervision
- Desire/Interest to assist other international students with their career development and gain valuable knowledge for their own personal career development

In your professional one-page cover letter, please include when you are available each weekday (Monday through Friday) from 9am to 9pm
The NOAA Office of National Marine Sanctuaries serves as the trustee for a network of underwater parks encompassing more than 170,000 square miles of marine and Great Lakes waters from Washington state to the Florida Keys, and from Lake Huron to American Samoa. The network includes a system of 13 national marine sanctuaries and Papahānaumokuākea and Rose Atoll marine national monuments. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis. Applicants for the winter session can anticipate a mid January 2017 start date. Applicants for the summer session can anticipate a mid-May 2017 start date.

To apply, please email a cover letter, 1-2 page writing sample and a resume to the contacts below.

We invite you to join a dedicated and enthusiastic team at the NOAA Office of National Marine Sanctuaries where you will gain invaluable resume-building experience and an insider’s perspective from the nation’s leader in ocean conservation and management. The NOAA Office of National Marine Sanctuaries conducts outreach with members of Congress and constituent groups on key issues, such as marine conservation, climate change and maritime heritage. As a volunteer intern, you will assist with constituent and congressional outreach efforts. We are looking for motivated self-starters who enjoy both independent and collaborative work. The ideal candidate for this volunteer position will possess a strong academic background and the desire to immerse oneself in the world of marine communications and the internal workings of a federal office. Please contact grace.bottitta@noaa.gov.

We invite you to join a dedicated and enthusiastic team at the NOAA Office of National Marine Sanctuaries where you will gain invaluable resume-building experience and an insider’s perspective from the nation’s leader in ocean conservation and management. The Communications Team produces and distributes NOAA Office of National Marine Sanctuaries messages through a variety of channels to a diverse audience – agency departments, news media and the public. As a volunteer intern, you will have the opportunity to participate in staff meetings; fine-tune writing, editing and proofreading skills; develop targeted media lists and media kits; learn media outreach strategies. Strong research and writing skills are a must, along with knowledge of social media trends and best practices. Please contact vernon.smith@noaa.gov.

Destination Marketing and Outdoor Recreation Intern

As a volunteer intern, you will work with the Communications and Stewardship group to implement NOAA Office of National Marine Sanctuaries Travel & Tourism Strategy and enhance visibility of responsible recreation opportunities in national marine sanctuaries. Relevant support tasks will include, but are not limited to, development of topical factsheets and articles for various audiences, outreach to travel bloggers and convention and visitors bureaus, and attendance at agency meetings. This is an exciting opportunity to explore sanctuary connections to the outdoor recreation and ecotourism industries in both public and private sectors, and assist in ensuring that ONMS place-based conservation efforts are recognized and publicized in local and interagency arenas. Competitive candidates will have good communication skills and an interest in parks and recreation management, tourism development, or marine affairs. Please contact chiara.zuccarino-crowe@noaa.gov.
University of Southern California's Ph.D. program in political science and international relations (POIR) asks you to consider their program for graduate school. We are a community of scholars who study American politics; comparative politics; international security and foreign policy; and international political economy. USC's POIR was recently ranked in the top 20 Ph.D. programs in the field in the National Research Council R-rankings.

Our Ph.D. alumni are researchers and teachers at some of the finest institutions in the world. For instance, five of six students (83%) who completed their Ph.D.s in 2015 and were on the 2015-16 academic job market received tenure-track, permanent, or postdoctoral positions in last year's job market.

This 2015-16 academic year's tenure-track and postdoctoral placements included Oxford, University of Michigan, N.C. State University, Occidental College, CSU-Channel Islands, and Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Our students, faculty, and alumni contribute to our understanding of the political, economic, and societal dynamics of the U.S. and the world. Our goal is to produce scholars, researchers and educators grappling with questions examining the challenges of the 21st century.

We emphasize theoretical and methodological training. Graduate students work with and learn from world-renowned faculty to produce specialized research in political science and international relations. In addition to specialized research, our students are exposed to multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary approaches. Many of our students also receive extensive methods training, both quantitative and qualitative.

Please visit http://dornsife.usc.edu/poir/ for more information on the program.
A TALK WITH

STEVE FORBES

REVIVING AMERICAN CAPITALISM:
The Forbes Formula for Economic Success

December 8, 2016 at 7:30 p.m.
Funger 103
HUMANITY IN ACTION FELLOWSHIP INFO SESSION

Want to spend a summer in Europe? You could as a Humanity in Action Fellow. HIA fellows are upperclassmen and recent graduates who commit to spending a summer in a city in Europe learning about the issues facing minority populations there and discussing interesting ways to address the problems they face.

Want to know more? We'll be hosting an information session next Tuesday, December 6 at 3pm in Room 538 of Colonial Crossroads (Marvin Center 5th Floor).

Need even more incentive? There'll be free pizza.
Opportunities at the Hertog Foundation –
Visit www.hertogfoundation.org to learn more and apply.

Political Studies Program

- Eligibility: Undergraduates and very recent graduates (2016 or 2017)
- Location: Washington, DC
- Duration: 7-week program, June 18-August 5, 2017
- Stipend: Provides housing and some meals, plus stipend

Hertog Fellows study classic texts in political thought and some of the seminal documents of American politics with an outstanding faculty. In addition, students study selected public policy issues with some of those who helped formulate and implement those policies.

War Studies Program

- Eligibility: College juniors, seniors and very recent graduates (2016 or 2017)
- Location: Washington, DC
- Duration: 2-week program, Summer 2017 (dates TBA)
- Stipend: Provides housing and some meals, plus stipend

The War Studies Program, run by the Institute for the Study of War, aims to educate undergraduate students about the theory, practice, organization, and control of war and military forces. Over the course of the program, students will learn from and interact with distinguished senior leaders in the national security and military communities, including retired generals and leading intellectuals.

Summer Courses

- Eligibility: Undergraduates and very recent graduates (2016 or 2017)
- Location: Washington, DC
- Duration: One- to two-week seminars throughout the period of June 25-August 5, 2017
- Stipend: Provides housing and some meals, plus stipend

This series of one- to two-week seminars allows students to create their own individualized course of study. Younger students are encouraged to apply for these seminars, as are upperclassmen who have other obligations during the summer. Offerings include topics such as American Political Thought, American Democratic Capitalism, Thucydides and Today’s Challenges, and Landmark Supreme Court Cases.

The application deadline is Monday, February 6, 2017.
Early decision deadline is Monday, December 5, 2016.
Forum & Networking Events

When Your Income Isn’t Enough:
Bridging the Divide Between Homelessness & Affordable Housing

73% of DC residents earning below ~$15,000 experience severe housing cost burden (paying more than 50% of their income).

BUT

the definition of affordable housing is paying 30% of your income.

Join Street Sense & Local Organizations in Discussing a Solution
WHEN: Dec. 7, 2016 6:30-8:30pm
WHERE: 1317 G St. NW, Street Sense Headquarters
FOFAC INFO SESSIONS

Wednesday, November 2 .............................. 3:00pm
Tuesday, November 8 ................................. 4:00pm
Monday, November 14 .................................. 4:00pm
Thursday, December 1 ............................... 12:00pm
Monday, December 5 ................................. 1:00pm
Wednesday, December 7 ............................. 3:00pm

Location: Office for Study Abroad in Colonial Crossroads
Marvin Center, 5th Floor

APPLY TODAY:
studyabroad.gwu.edu
DONALD M. PAYNE
INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FELLOWSHIP

Howard University
paynefells.org

The U.S. Agency for International Development, in cooperation with Howard University, invites outstanding individuals interested in international development and careers in the USAID Foreign Service to apply for the 2017 Donald M. Payne International Development Graduate Fellowship. Candidates can be graduating seniors or college graduates with strong academic records and a desire to promote positive change in the world. The Payne program encourages the application of members of minority groups historically underrepresented in the Foreign Service and those with financial need. Selected fellows will receive support for graduate school and gain employment with USAID in an exciting and rewarding career in Foreign Service.

ELIGIBILITY
- Must be a U.S. Citizen.
- Must be seeking admission to enter a two-year graduate program in the fall of 2017 at a U.S. university.
- Must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.2 or higher on a 4.0 scale at the time of application.

Note: Applicants are not required to be Howard University students or applying to Howard for graduate school.

PROGRAM BENEFITS
- An orientation to the Program and the USAID Foreign Service at Howard University in Washington D.C.
- Two fully funded summer internships on Capitol Hill and overseas at a USAID Mission.
- Up to $36,500 annually toward tuition, fees, and living expenses for a two-year master's degree in international development, international affairs, public administration, environmental sciences, public health, agriculture, or other relevant area of study.
- Mentorship from a USAID Foreign Service Officer throughout the duration of the fellowship.
- Employment in the USAID Foreign Service.

Apply: October 1, 2016 - January 20, 2017
Additional information and online application available at www.PayneFellows.org
Contact: paynefells@howard.edu
Career services offer industry newsletters to help you with your job search. Sign up information is below. Career services is always available to help with resume review, interview prep, and your job search. Visit http://careerservices.gwu.edu for more on the services they provide.

Center for Career Services

Industry Newsletter Sign Ups

Use the shortlinks below each image to sign up for the respective newsletter or go to GWork, click on Quick Links and go directly to the respective newsletter sign up page.

- Business, Finance, Consulting & Economics
  - go.gwu.edu/businessnewsletter

- Science, Technology, Engineering & Math
  - go.gwu.edu/stmmnewsletter

- International Government, Policy, Diplomacy, Intelligence & International Development
  - go.gwu.edu/intnflttnewsletter

- Arts, Design, Media, Communications & Public Relations
  - go.gwu.edu/artscommnewsletter

- Public Health, Health Sciences, Nursing & Medicine
  - go.gwu.edu/healthsciencenewsletter

- U.S. Government & Policy, NGO, Education, Human Services & Law
  - go.gwu.edu/publicservicenewsletter

http://careerservices.gwu.edu