In this newsletter:
- Fall internship opportunities
- Upcoming events

Follow Us On Facebook! http://www.facebook.com/GWPJPoliticalScience
Follow Us On Instagram! @GWU_PSC
Istituto Europeo
Offers a 3 weeks Italian + 9 week International Relations internship at 870 euros + 70 euros enrollment fee in an International Italian Institutions, working for international projects.

If you are interested in the offer please contact us: info@istitutoeuropeo.it

ISTITUTO EUROPEO PROGRAMS OF EXCELLENCE diffusione della lingua, musica, arte e cultura italiana I.E. Academic Programs Via Del Parione, 1 (Tornabuoni) - 50123 Firenze - Italy tel +39 055 2381071 - +39 055 217403 - fax +39 055 289145 email: info@istitutoeuropeo.it website: www.istitutoeuropeo.it website: www.studyabroad-ie.com

Apply NOW for the Model NATO Youth Summit

The Model NATO Youth Summit has announced its call for applicants to participate in the world’s largest simulation of NATO procedures this December 1-7, 2014, in Podgorica, Montenegro, where students, young professionals and future global leaders will come together to highlight major military-security and political issues facing NATO member states today.

To participate in the third annual edition of MoNYS people are invited to apply as an individual or group delegate, chairperson and/or journalist by the 17th August.

The purpose of MoNYS is to raise awareness on the mission and main activities of NATO, while creating a platform for the young generation to debate on current social and political international issues. MoNYS aims to enrich the academic curriculum of its participants, by engaging them in intercultural exchange and by offering them a close view into their prospective career. Students and young professionals between the ages of 18 to 28 will be given the opportunity to implement the tools of analysis acquired during their studies and prior work experience in a practical environment. The summit has all the features of a real-life situation, since all stakeholders involved will defend important national interests, such as peace and security.

To apply as a participant of MoNYS, or for further information, please visit: www.natoyouthsummit.org

You can also follow us on Twitter: @MoNYS2014, and like us on Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/modelnatoyouthsummit.
NEW POSTING!!

Public Policy Advisors Openings

Limited Openings for Public Policy Committee Members

Subcommittees include:
- Affordable Housing
- Arts & Culture- Neighborhood Environments
- Jobs and Economic Development
- Public Safety and Government Integrity
- Education
- Social Welfare
- Health & Wellness
- Special Interests: Elderly, Veterans and others
- Other subcommittee(s) you feel are needed.

Committee members will meet weekly, or as needed for 2 hours, to propose and discuss policies for Washington, DC issues.
Committee members must be prepared to bring policy positions and programs for discussion and review of members and provide electronic copies describing their positions with evidence of effective of their policies where the policies have been implemented. Where policies have not been implemented, the must be able to present the pros and cons of their proposed solutions. Applicants must be knowledgeable of successful policies implemented in various cities in the US, Europe, Asia, Africa, South and Central America or the Middle East, OR be willing to research policies in these area and present findings to the committee.

Join John Cheeks’, next Washington DC, Council Chairman, Policy Advisory Committee. Improving government services that will improve the lives of all Washington, DC residents and set an example for the world community.

John Cheeks, called by some, the "Black Bloomberg", and "the Mohamed Ali" "knock out candidate" of DC politics, who is changing the way politics have been done and controlled by a small group for 20 years. No one has asked for legislation for the removal of substance addicted elected officials and specific programs to improve Washington., see the progressive 15 point platform being talked about as the best platform seen in years.

Open to Faculty, Scholars, Activists, Graduate and Undergraduate Students
Estimated Start Date August 18, 2014   End Date October 18, 2014
Duration 2 months minimum
Compensation: Local travel costs
To Apply, email cheeksforimprovement@gmail.com or call Ron Bonfilio (518) 423 5461
Internships

Political Fundraising Internship Opportunity
Democratic political fundraising firm seeks a smart and dedicated individual to work as a Fundraising Intern. Candidate must be reliable, possess excellent communications skills, have a working knowledge of national politics, and be passionate about Democrats winning seats in November. The ideal candidate will have experience in any of the following: political fundraising and/or campaigns, complex research, fast-paced work environments, and/or NGP.

The position will allow for hands on experience in all stages of the campaign fundraising process including donor prospecting, event planning, campaign research, and database management. Given that this internship will run through the election, it will a particularly unique experience. Our firm has or currently consults for Democratic U.S. Senators and Congressmen, Democratic Party committees, and federal candidates. Three of our clients have elections in November.

This internship is unpaid, but hours are flexible and we are happy to accommodate a class schedule. The office is located two blocks from Union Station. Interns will have the opportunity to attend fundraising events and meet our clients. Interested candidates should email a resume and cover letter to Brendan Koch (BKoch@cf-grp.com).

NEW POSTING!!

Fall Internship for House Democrat
The office of Congressman Ron Barber of Arizona seeks qualified interns for our fall internship program in the Congressman’s Washington, DC office. Interns can expect to gain exposure to the day-to-day activities of Congress while playing an active role in the daily work of a Congressional office. Congressman Barber’s district deals extensively with border and immigration issues, alternative energy (solar), scientific research and national security.

Our internship program places interns in roles with significant responsibility, including assisting with constituent communications, attending briefings on behalf of legislative staff, leading Capitol tours, general administrative duties, and assisting with special projects.

Internships are unpaid, but arrangements can be made with your school for academic credit. Both part-time and full-time internships are available, but preference will be given to those who can dedicate at least 25 hours per week.

Interested applicants should send a cover letter and resume to az.house.internship@gmail.com. Individuals with Arizona ties are strongly encouraged to apply. No calls please.
Congressional Internship Opportunity:
The office of Congresswoman Robin Kelly (D-IL) is currently seeking full-time & part-time Congressional Intern candidates in our Washington, DC Office to start immediately. Interns are critical to the daily operation, goals and vision of the office. Interns support the office by carrying out critical administrative, communication, outreach and constituent service functions. Interns in our office learn the legislative process first-hand, gain exposure to our nation’s leaders, experience congressional office operations and serve the people through constituent services. Interns are also given networking opportunities and connections to help navigate the DC job market. Applicants should have demonstrated skill in the areas of writing, communications, and organization. An ideal candidate is detail-oriented, has a positive attitude, and has the ability to manage multiple tasks on a deadline. Ties to the district or to Illinois are preferred but a sense of humor is required!

To apply, please go to https://robinkelly.house.gov/services/internships/congressional-internship-application

NEW POSTING!!

The Nonprofit Roundtable is seeking a Programs and Membership Intern to collaborate with our Core Team members in the area of program development, volunteer and alumni management, and member engagement.

Chief responsibilities of the Programs and Membership Intern include:
- Assist with the creation of Alumni Relations Committees for our Frank Karel and Future ED Fellowship Programs
- Assist staff in processing Fellows in advance of their participation, and provide logistical support for fellowship staff and program participants.
- Document management and retention for fellowship programs
- Analyzing and summarizing monthly session evaluations
- Assist with execution of internal membership transaction processes, record dues, send renewal and thank you letters
- Maintain and update Salesforce database with accurate and up to date information, as well as help create reports from this information
- Maintain various communication channels to support the Roundtable's mission. This may include social media channels, website, or other channels.

The Programs and Membership Intern will report directly to the Director of Leadership Development and the Membership Associate, but may also work with other team members. This is an unpaid position. We are fully committed to equal employment opportunity and compliance with the full range of fair employment practices and non-discrimination laws. To apply, send resume and cover letter to jobs@nonprofitroundtable.org with RT INTERN in the subject line by Friday, August 22, 2014. No phone calls, please.
Echelon Insights Fellowship

Unlock insights to help clients make smart choices. Apply right-brained creativity to left-brained analysis. Qualitative or quantitative, structured or unstructured, we use a big toolkit to crack the code on strategy and persuasion and to let data tell meaningful stories. Our Fellows will work directly with our partners and analysts to uncovering and mining new data sources, synthesizing results, and writing research reports for our growing base of clients and subscribers. As an Echelon Fellow, you’ll be at the forefront of answering some of the most interesting and burning questions in politics, media, and marketing today. Your work will focus on uncovering the factors that really matter in driving persuasion and organizational effectiveness, using digital data sources to help our clients gain real-time situational awareness of their competition and the challenges ahead.

An Echelon Fellowship offers college students and others looking to explore a career in market research an opportunity to learn from leaders in the field in a fast-paced, startup environment. Full-time Fellows will earn a stipend of $1,000 per month. We are currently accepting applications for Summer and Fall fellowships.

For more information, see: http://echeloninsights.theresumator.com/apply/PsYRGe/Echelon-Insights-Fellowship.html

NEW POSTING!!

Precision Strategies

Precision Strategies, a strategic consulting firm founded by Stephanie Cutter, Jen O’Malley Dillon, and Teddy Goff, is now accepting applications for fall interns in our Washington, D.C. and New York, NY offices. Undergraduates, recent graduates, and graduate students are eligible to apply. Fall interns attending college or graduate school will be part time, but should be available at least 15-20 hours a week and to compile morning media clips. The fall internship program will run from September through December. All interns will receive a stipend.

Interns will provide support across the three teams of our firm—Organizational Management & Data, Communications, and Digital—assisting our work for clients ranging from domestic and foreign political campaigns, large tech companies, big American brands, movie studios, social movements, and more. Work will include, but will certainly not be limited to, media monitoring, conducting research for meetings and presentations, and creating media and influencer lists. Additionally, digital interns will help write copy for digital platforms and assist on paid advertising campaigns.

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter and resume to contact@precisionstrategies.com. In your cover letter, please include your dates of availability.
Company Description
Advanced Network Strategies is a Democratic Campaign Fundraising firm located on Capitol Hill specializing in contributions from interest groups. The firm’s twelve clients cover a wide range of knowledge, expertise, and geography. Its client roster currently boasts 12 Members of Congress including Mike Thompson (CA), Bennie Thompson (MS), Collin Peterson (MN), John Larson (CT), Emanuel Cleaver (MO), Hank Johnson (GA), Jim Cooper (TN), Janice Hahn (CA), Luis Gutierrez (IL), Robin Kelly (IL), Michelle Lujan Grisham (NM), and Marcia Fudge (OH). While specializing in fundraising here in Washington, DC, ANS also handles our clients’ events across the country.

Job Description
Our internship provides a high level of exposure to the political process for students interested in a career in politics. Interns will interact with Members of Congress, Lobbyists, and Hill Staffers on a daily basis. Additionally, the firm consists of only two paid employees, making our intern a valuable and necessary part of the office. While the job does include some data entry, the vast majority of our intern’s responsibilities involve direct interaction with our clients and potential contributors. Interns will be responsible for planning and executing fundraisers, conducting research on potential donors, staffing Members of Congress, as well as soliciting contributions from interest groups and individuals. This is an unpaid internship.

Job Qualifications
The ideal candidate would be well-versed in current events (e.g. read a newspaper daily), have excellent phone presence, be able to multi-task in a fast-paced environment, be responsive and decisive. Because our interns spend so much of their time interacting with Members and their staffs, candidates must be mature, professional, and a quick-study.

To Apply
To apply, please send a copy of your resume to Julie Vieburg at JVieburg@gmail.com.
The World Affairs Council – Washington, DC is a small, fast paced organization dedicated to expanding global education opportunities to high school students and teachers in the DC area and beyond. The Council is seeking a graduate student pursuing a Master’s degree in education, international education or curriculum development. WAC-DC is looking for talented individuals to join our team to help develop and expand our goals. Interns will have an opportunity to see all aspects of the organization as well as plenty of hands-on experience in resource and program development. Additionally, interns will have the opportunity to create, plan and execute their own program ideas.

Want to be a WAC-DC intern? We’re accepting applications for the fall!

Applications due August 13, 2014
Visit www.worldaffairsdcc.org for details
Fairfax County Supervisor John Foust is the Democratic nominee running to represent Virginia’s 10th Congressional District. As Supervisor, John has demonstrated that he is a problem solver who listens to and respects the opinions of others. John is running to bring that same kind of consensus-building to Washington. John Foust has been named to the DCCC’s coveted Red to Blue Program for surpassing aggressive fundraising, organization, and infrastructure goals, and we are proud to work to turn the 10th District Blue for the first time in 34 years.

The Fall Organizing Fellowship is an internship program that will equip you with the knowledge and skills to run a field campaign. We are implementing the Neighborhood Team Model, based on the principles of inclusion and empowerment, and it is at the cutting edge of campaign strategy. Organizing Fellows will work with campaign staff to expand its outreach efforts across Northern Virginia and get first-hand experience of what it takes to run an elective campaign. This position will be based throughout the 10th District with offices in Fairfax County, Loudoun County, Frederick County, and Manassas. The fall program starts on September 1st and ends in November. Both full time and part time positions are available.

RESPONSIBILITIES:
We are employing a Neighborhood Team-based program. This approach is the most elective community organizing strategy, and it centers on working in the community to identify, train, and manage neighborhood-based volunteer teams. Fellows will learn and utilize all the key tactics to this strategy including:
• Engaging new potential volunteers through phone calls and canvassing
• Holding 1:1 meetings with potential volunteers organizers to discuss shared goals and strategy, develop relationships, and plan action together
• Empowering new voters by collecting voter registration forms
• Entering, organizing, and maintaining data from all of our community interactions
• Using social networks to help amplify our message and to talk about the work that we do
• Holding House Meetings to bring supporters together in communities to strategize about what the campaign should look like in their neighborhoods

SKILLS AND QUALIFICATIONS:
• Candidates will preferably have their own vehicle or other mode of transportation, though our McLean office can be reached via public transportation
• A good sense of humor and a strong interest in politics are musts
• A commitment to putting John Foust in the House

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter and resume to apply@foustforvirginia.com. THE DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION IS AUGUST 31ST. This is an unpaid position, but we are happy to work with fellows to secure academic credit for their work.
NEW POSTING!!

The Millennial Action Project (MAP), the country’s first national organization dedicated to fighting partisan gridlock through next generation leadership, is seeking interns for Fall 2014. Building on its success in organizing the bipartisan Congressional Future Caucus, MAP is quickly expanding its operations and making an impact in national political and policy debates. MAP is a start-up organization with room for individuals to take on significant responsibility, work in a dynamic and entrepreneurial environment, and contribute to organizational development and strategy. Interns will work at a high level with MAP’s Executive Director and volunteer staff out of MAP’s Washington, DC office in Dupont Circle.

Several internships are available:
- Communications: This intern has prior experience with managing or contributing to an organization’s public relations, media and communication strategies (a related college degree is also fine). The ideal candidate is a strong writer, works well on short deadlines, and is familiar with industry best practices for print, broadcast and social media.
- Web Development/Graphic Design: This intern is passionate about creating a clean, sharp web presence for organizations through websites, blogs and social media. An ideal candidate is creative in Photoshop, iMovie, Final Cut Pro (or any other graphic or visual design program) and can turn design and functionality ideas into final products. Knowledge or experience with HTML, CSS, PHP or Javascript is preferred.
- Operations: This intern enjoys being on the administrative side of an organization. An ideal applicant has experience with nonprofit management duties, including event planning skills, scheduling, fundraising, and maintaining professional relationships.
- Policy: This intern is a policy wonk at heart and proud. An ideal candidate has experience writing policy briefs and conducting solid research on various public policies. Experience with synthesizing large amounts of information into condensed analysis for others to comprehend is strongly preferred.

MAP internships provide a unique opportunity to contribute to a critical national cause with prospects of future employment. Interns will also have the opportunity to interface with leaders in the media, on Capitol Hill, and on our advisory boards. Internships are unpaid.

If interested, please email internship@millennialaction.org with your resume and a brief cover letter (no more than 500 words) explaining your interest in the position and relevant areas of experience and expertise. Start and end dates are flexible. The final deadline for applications is 8/22/2014, however, applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis and applicants are encouraged to apply immediately.

More information about MAP can be found at www.millennialaction.org.
The Center for International Private Enterprise (CIPE) seeks a full-time or near full-time undergraduate or graduate student with strong research, organizational, writing and interpersonal skills to assist the Evaluation Officer for Fall 2014. This intern will work with the Evaluation Team which provides research and evaluation support across all CIPE regional, global and knowledge management divisions. This is an opportunity to understand results-based democratization and gain practical experience in research, proposal development and evaluation of projects. This position is ideal for students interested in learning more about performance evaluation, building their analytic and research skills, the use of logic models, and acting as an in-house consultant on diverse projects. The anticipated start date is flexible, but it is anticipated to start on or around September 5, 2014.

Primary Responsibilities
- Draft research reports and presentations
- Build an in-house searchable database of indicators for different types of democratization programs
- Review in-house project proposals and final reports for evaluability and impact assessment
- Research grant opportunities and write grant proposals
- Develop and validate tools (e.g., needs assessments, surveys, focus groups)
- Design and deliver training to CIPE program and in-country staff on evaluation skills
- Gain skills in qualitative and quantitative data analysis
- Visit offices and events associated with other democratization and evaluation groups as well as the U.S. Congress

Qualifications
- Previous interest and experience in at least one of the following: international issues related to democratic transitions and the role of civil society in promoting democratic reform, comparative politics, democratization, training, entrepreneurship, women and politics, or program evaluation.
- Preference will be given to graduate students with advanced research and research design skills including SPSS, data analysis and statistical skills although undergraduates with some research skills (such as a research methods or program evaluation course) and a keen desire to learn are also encouraged to apply.
- Strong verbal and written communication skills in English; proficiency in a second language a plus.

To Apply: Send a cover letter, résumé, and brief writing sample to: internships@cipe.org by August 29, 2014 (subject line: LAST NAME [Insert REGION/AREA of Interest] Intern). No phone calls please! CIPE will only contact interns that are selected for an interview. Applicants may at their option submit a brief abstract (250 words maximum) of a topic they would like to research that relates to both their academic/personal interests and CIPE’s themes. More information is available on CIPE’s website: http://www.cipe.org/content/cipes-internship-program
NEW POSTING!!

Women's Empowerment Intern

The Center for International Private Enterprise (CIPE) seeks a full-time or near full-time undergraduate or graduate student with strong organizational, writing and interpersonal skills to assist the Women’s Entrepreneurship Staff Working Group for Fall 2014. Organized in 1983, CIPE is a nonprofit and nonpartisan organization that is one of the four core institutes of the National Endowment for Democracy. CIPE strengthens democracy around the globe through private enterprise and market-oriented reform, and has worked with business leaders, policymakers, and journalists to build the civic institutions vital to a democratic society. CIPE’s key program areas include anticorruption, advocacy, business associations, corporate governance, democratic governance, access to information, the informal sector and property rights, and women and youth. CIPE believes that the institutions of democracy are key in securing and enforcing the fundamental rights of women and providing them with mechanisms for full economic, political, and civic participation. Women play a fundamentally important role in building democracies that deliver, taking charge in creating prosperous and equal societies. CIPE views this role through the prism of linkages between political and economic empowerment, where civil society organizations — especially women’s business associations — remove barriers and empower women to participate fully in society and shape their own countries. The Women’s Entrepreneurship Staff Working Group is responsible for advising and assisting CIPE’s regional teams in the development and implementation of women-specific programs around the world. Since 1999, CIPE’s regional teams have implemented over 60 projects that work in or with women business owners and associations in 58 countries in all regions of the world. The anticipated start date is flexible, but it is anticipated to start on or around September 5, 2014.

Primary Responsibilities
- Researching, writing and editing reports, case studies, and blog posts describing women’s programs in ways that highlight best practices and lessons from the field, as well as innovative practices drawn from other organizations.
- Maintaining a database of CIPE projects on women’s entrepreneurship and empowerment.
- Participating in the writing of grant proposals to support new and expanded women’s programs.
- Attending and reporting back to the team on selected internal meetings and external events.
- Assisting team members in responding to requests for information regarding CIPE’s programs.

Qualifications
- Previous interest and experience in at least one of the following: women and leadership, women in business, women’s entrepreneurship, women and management, training, research methods, civic education and related areas of work.
- Demonstrated interest in international issues related to democratic transitions and the role of civil society in promoting democratic reform.
- Strong verbal and written communication skills in English; proficiency in a second language a plus.

To Apply: Send a cover letter, résumé, and brief writing sample to: internships@cipe.org by August 29, 2014 (subject line: LAST NAME [Insert REGION/AREA of Interest] Intern). No phone calls please! CIPE will only contact interns that are selected for an interview. Applicants may at their option submit a brief abstract (250 words maximum) of a topic they would like to research that relates to both their academic/personal interests and CIPE’s themes. More information is available on CIPE’s website:
NEW POSTING!!

EMILY’s List Fall Internships
GAIN VALUABLE POLITICAL EXPERIENCE & HELP ELECT PRO-CHOICE DEMOCRATIC WOMEN UP & DOWN THE TICKET!

What is EMILY’s List?
EMILY’s List, the nation’s largest resource for women in politics, has raised over $390 million to support pro-choice Democratic women candidates-- making it one of the most successful political organizations ever. Throughout our 29 year history, the organization has recruited and trained over 9,000 women to run, and helped elect over 100 women to the House, 10 to the Senate, 10 governors, and over 500 to state and local office.

Why should I intern at EMILY’s List?
Interns have the opportunity to do substantive work, while gaining in-depth experience in the political sector. EMILY’s List offers full-time and part-time internships in ten departments.

Application Information:
Applications for fall 2014 will be reviewed on a rolling schedule. All internships are located in Washington, D.C. & are unpaid.
http://www.emilyslist.org/pages/entry/internships-learn-more

NEW POSTING!!

The Office of Senator Chris Coons seeks unpaid interns for offices in Washington, DC, Wilmington, DE, and Dover, DE for the fall of 2014. Responsibilities include answering phones, greeting visitors, sorting mail, handling requests for flags and tours, and assisting front office as well as legislative staff. This position requires outstanding organizational abilities, strong communication skills, attention to detail, poise, flexibility, and an ability to prioritize in an extremely fast-paced office. Motivated, hard-working, and professional applicants looking to get a taste of Capitol Hill or state Congressional offices are encouraged to apply.

Interested candidates should send an e-mail to Eric_Wall@coons.senate.gov with the subject line reading “Intern” and include a cover letter, resume, and one brief (2 page) writing sample. Students should also specify which offices they are interested in applying to. Applications received by September 1 will be given priority. Delaware ties strongly preferred, but not required. Absolutely no walk-ins or phone calls.