

Jeannette A. Gaudry Haynie

902 Allison Street
Alexandria, VA 22302
760-470-6893
jeannette.haynie@gmail.com
jaghaynie@email.gwu.edu
jhaynie@wiisglobal.org

EDUCATION / PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- PhD candidate in political science doctoral program at The George Washington University with a hopeful completion date of fall 2017.
- PhD major: International Relations
- PhD minor: Quantitative Methods
- Graduate Assistant/Fellow: George Washington University, August 2016 – May 2017
 - Led discussion sections for Introduction to International Politics course
- Lieutenant Colonel in Marine Corps Reserves: commissioned May 1998
 - Active duty Marine Corps officer: May 1998 – January 2008
 - Reserve Marine Corps officer: January 1998 – present
 - AH-1W Cobra pilot
- Senior Fellow, Women in International Security (WIIS): May 2015 – present
- Team Member, Women in the Service Change Initiative: April 2017 – present

Approved Dissertation Prospectus, The George Washington University:

- “Canaries in the Coal Mines? Understanding How Gender Inequality Contributes to Terrorism and Violent Extremism”
- Committee Chair: Dr. Alexander Downes, Ph.D.

M.A., University of New Orleans, August 2009-December 2011, Major: Political Science

- M.A. Thesis: “The Women and Peace Hypothesis in the Age of Nancy Pelosi: Can Women Bring About World Peace?”
- Thesis Advisor: Dr. Michael Huelshoff, Ph.D.
- Member of Pi Sigma Alpha

B.S., United States Naval Academy, May 1998, Major: Oceanography

- Graduated with Honors in Oceanography; top 20% of graduating class
- Received commission as Second Lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps upon graduation

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

- Ongoing research for Dissertation (successfully defended prospectus in June 2015)
- Ongoing research for Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps regarding gender, manpower, and warfighting
- Ongoing research for Headquarters Marine Corps Strategic Initiatives Group (summer 2016 – present)
- Ongoing research for Women In International Security on impacts of gender and gender inequality on state security, particularly on terrorism and violent extremism
- Ongoing research for Women in the Service Change Initiative on gender integration and military effectiveness
- Researched and collected data applicable to Master's Thesis (January-October 2011)
- Ongoing general research for academic work (August 2009-present)
- Continuing research for regular (25+) blog posts at the U.S. Naval Institute, the professional organization of the Navy and Marine Corps: <https://blog.usni.org/author/jhaynie>

CONFERENCE AND PANEL PARTICIPATION

- Panelist, Officer Women's Leadership Symposium, April 2017
- Moderator, Women in International Security (WIIS) panel on gender and terrorism, March 2017
- Panelist, WIIS Panel at National War College on integration issues, January 2017
- Moderator, WIIS panel on gendered aspects of individual terrorist and extremist organizations, October 2016
- Moderator, WIIS panel on gendered CVE programs, June 2016
- Co-moderator, WIIS panel on gender components of radicalization and recruitment by terrorist and extremist groups, May 2016
- Senior Advisor to Naval Academy Foreign Affairs Conference Round Table on Women and U.S. Foreign Policy, April 2016
- Panelist, National Defense University panel on how an integrated military can best address asymmetrical security concerns, February 2016
- Panelist, Dad 2.0 Conference panel on sharing family responsibilities in a dual-military marriage
- Interview, MidRats radio show August 2012, episode on women in the military
- Video subject, "The Fight to Fight," on women in combat, 2012

PUBLISHED AND SOCIAL MEDIA MATERIAL

- "How a Forward-Looking Approach to Gender Will Make the Marines Stronger." With LtCol Edward Powers. June 2017. <http://taskandpurpose.com/not-just-women-forward-looking-approach-gender-will-make-marines-stronger/>
- "The Marines United Scandal Should be Seen as a National Security Issue." With Kyleanne Hunter. April 2017. <http://foreignpolicy.com/2017/04/13/the-marines-united-scandal-should-be-seen-as-a-national-security-issue/>.
- WIIS policy brief 4, "Women, Gender, and Terrorism: Understanding Cultural and Organizational Differences." With Chantal DeJonge Oudraat. April 2017. <http://wiisglobal.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/02/4th-WIIS-Policy-Brief-v2-5-1-17.pdf>.
- Featured in "Turnabout is Fair Play: A Marine Officer Interviews Tom about Military Leadership." Thomas Ricks' Best Defense: <http://foreignpolicy.com/2017/03/13/turnabout-is-fair-play-a-marine-officer-interviews-tom-about-military-leadership/>.

- WIIS policy brief 3, “Women, Gender and Terrorism: Policies and Programming.” January 2017. <http://wiisglobal.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/02/Women-Gender-and-Terrorism-Policies-and-Programming.pdf>.
- “Military Care in America.” October 2016, New America Weekly edition 139. <https://www.newamerica.org/weekly/edition-139/military-care-america/>
- WIIS policy brief 2, “Women, Gender and Terrorism: Gendered Aspects of Radicalization and Recruitment.” September 2016. <http://wiisglobal.org/wp-content/uploads/2016/07/2ND-WIIS-Policy-Brief-v3.pdf>.
- “Just the Facts? The Importance of Science in Formulating and Implementing Policy,” with Kyleanne Hunter, on Thomas Ricks’ Best Defense Column, February 2016. <http://foreignpolicy.com/2016/02/18/just-the-facts-the-importance-of-science-in-formulating-and-implementing-policy/>
- “Why Leadership Will Either Make or Break Combat Integration in the Marine Corps,” with Kate Germano and Kyleanne Hunter, on Thomas Ricks’ Best Defense Column. January 2016. <http://foreignpolicy.com/2016/01/11/why-leadership-will-either-make-or-break-combat-integration-in-the-marine-corps/>
- “The Dangerous Non-Evolution of the Military (Gender Integration),” with Kate Germano, November 2015, in Small Wars Journal. <http://smallwarsjournal.com/jrnl/art/the-dangerous-non-evolution-of-the-military-gender-integration>
- “The Piece Missing From Peace,” WIIS publication, October 2015: <http://wiisglobal.org/wp-content/uploads/2013/09/Report-Section-3.pdf>.
- “Marines or Marines*?” with James C. Haynie. Proceedings Magazine Volume 138, Nov 2012.
- Ongoing regular blogger for United States Naval Institute blog – 25+ posts published since May 2012 (<https://blog.usni.org/author/jhaynie>)
- “The Women and Peace Hypothesis in the Age of Nancy Pelosi: Can Female Leaders Bring About World Peace?” Master’s thesis, University of New Orleans, December 2011.

GRADUATE STUDENT PAPERS

- “Does Gender Inequality Contribute to Terrorism?” written for Dr. Saunders’ Military Interventions Seminar, Spring 2014; also working title of draft prospectus
- “Annie Get Your Gun: Do Women in the Military Hurt Military Effectiveness?” written for Dr. Downes’ Military Effectiveness Seminar, Fall 2013.
- “Countering Terrorism With Women’s Rights: Smart or Merely Trendy?” written for Dr. Adcock’s Research Design Seminar, Fall 2013.
- “The Effects of Female Legislators and Partisanship on State Abortion Policy” written for Dr. Lawrence’s Maximum Likelihood seminar, Fall 2012.
- “The Women and Peace Hypothesis in the Age of Pelosi: Do Politics Override Gender?” written for Dr. Franks’ Foreign Policy seminar, Spring 2011
- “Annie Get Your Gun...Out of This State: Female Legislators’ Effect on State Gun Control Regulations” written for Dr. Lewis’ State Government seminar, Spring 2011
- “The Angelina Jolie Effect: Does Appearance Matter More for Female Political Candidates?” written for Dr. Jacobsmeier’s Minority Politics seminar, Fall 2010
- “Money Versus Military Manpower: An International Comparison” written for Dr. Sims’ Political Research Methods Seminar.