“Summer will end soon enough, and childhood as well.”
– George R.R. Martin, Game of Thrones

Students, welcome back to the 2013-2014 academic year. We look forward to working with you this year!

---

News and Events
Recent internships sent to the Department. Check out our Internet Database too!

Internships
Recent news from the Department of Political Science.

Jobs
Recent job opportunities sent to the department.

Follow Us On Facebook!: http://www.facebook.com/GWPOLITICALSCIENCE
New Posting!

Democratic Political Consulting Firm Seeks Interns

Join a fast growing Democratic political consulting firm that has worked on winning campaigns at the local, state and federal levels in addition to doing work abroad. The firm prides itself on its hands on approach with clients, focused on developing an effective message and communication strategy, expanding political networks, and building high quality events.

Internship Description:
- Have a unique opportunity to work directly with the principal of the firm
- Have an opportunity to work on assignments for a variety of different clients, including state-wide campaigns and congressional campaigns
- Interns will have draft Memos, conduct research, produce news clips, attend events on behalf of clients and more

Qualified Candidates:
- Self motivated individuals who can work independently
- Candidates must be able to complete tasks in a timely and efficient manor
- Campaign experience and/or Hill experience is a plus

College credit is available.

To apply please send a resume and cover letter to info@FeldmanStrategies.com
New Posting!

Internships with Public Citizen's Global Access to Medicines Program

Public Citizen’s Global Access to Medicines Program is still accepting internship applications for fall 2013 (late August through mid-December). The description is available below, though the internships is actually a bit more flexible and varied than the written description reflects.

Public Citizen’s Global Access to Medicines Program is looking for a well-organized Intern that will work closely with the Program Director on a number of coalition building, policy analysis, and research projects to improve public policy and expand global access to medicines. Experience with graphic design and social media tools highly desirable.

Issues include:
- Trans Pacific Free Trade Agreement.
- Compulsory Licensing.
- Domestic Policy – National Institutes of Health.
- Medicines Quality and Anti-Counterfeit Policy.

Description:
- Research policy, legislative and regulatory issues.
- Draft materials for dissemination to coalition partners.
- Make recommendations and collaborate on team projects
- Coordinate coalition conference calls, meetings, day(s) of action.
- Participate in conferences, meetings.
- Manage project timelines.
- Post documents to Access to Medicines Website.
- Support the Program Director as needed.

Qualifications:
- Demonstrated interest in public interest, public health, global health, or public policy preferred.
- Excellent research and writing skills.
- Ability to work in a fast-paced, team-centric environment with changing priorities.
  -- Detail oriented.
  -- Proficiency in internet and computer skills preferred. Advanced skills helpful.
  -- Fluency in Spanish and other languages helpful, but not required.

How to Apply:
Applicants must send resume and cover letter to Stephanie Rosenberg at srosenberg@citizen.org. No phone calls please. Women, people of color, and multilingual speakers are encouraged to apply.
New Posting!

A Wider Circle –
Nonprofit Organization Serving Children and Adults in Poverty

I am writing to share that A Wider Circle - a local and fast-growing nonprofit organization serving children and adults in poverty - has Fall 2013 internship opportunities available for undergraduate and graduate students.

Available internships can be viewed here and are available for 10 - 40 hours per week. All internships are unpaid and most are located at our Silver Spring, MD center. And if you get a chance to check out our operations, please do so here.

Interested students should send a cover letter and resume to intern@awidercircle.org.

As a fellow academician for many years, I can share that interns have life-changing experiences here and many have gone on to pursue careers of service to their fellow human beings, even if they had not planned on doing so prior to their internships. A Wider Circle serves the neediest of the needy in our region, and, to date, has served more than 115,000 individuals.

As a final note, if our work on poverty and social justice issues is of relevance to your class, we would be honored to come to your classes to share what we do and how we do it with your students.

I hope you will spread the word to your students, and I wish you all great success and impact this coming semester.

With respect,
Mark

A Wider Circle in the Washington Post: "D.C. at its best..."

--
Mark Bergel, Ph.D.
Founder, Executive Director, A Wider Circle
c: 301.675.7511; www.awidercircle.org
CFC #21120
- because each of us has the ability to end poverty
New Posting!

Social Work Internship

A social work intern is needed to assist the social workers at the Mental Health Division of the Public Defender Service for D.C. This agency represents persons undergoing involuntary civil and criminal commitment, primarily to Saint Elizabeths Hospital, the District of Columbia's public mental health facility. This position is open to undergraduate, graduate and law school students. Staring date, ending date, and schedule are all flexible. Application deadlines are flexible, except for summer. The summer application deadline is March 1st.

Duties include: case management; researching and evaluating community resources for clients with special needs; locating alternative placement for clients; conducting on-site evaluations of court-ordered nursing home clients; assessing appropriateness of treatment programs; serving as an advocate to ensure clients’ rights are protected; negotiating with hospital staff and community service providers to secure services and improve quality of clients’ care; investigating social issues affecting clients that arise from individual cases.

To apply, send cover letter, resume, writing sample and two references by email to mhdinternclerk@pdsdc.org, fax to 202/824-2877, or mail to:

Carolyn Slenska
Investigations Coordinator
Public Defender Service
Mental Health Division
633 Indiana Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20004

For more information, please visit our website at www.pdsdc.org, or call (202) 824-2860.

They are still accepting applications for a Social Work Intern for this current semester. If students are interested, please send their application materials to the email address above at your earliest convenience.
New Posting!

Enroll America

Enroll America is now accepting applications for our Fall Fellowship program in DC. The Fellowship will offer a chance to help build a national campaign to maximize the number of Americans who sign up for the new health insurance options made possible by the Affordable Care Act.

Fellows will be supported by thorough training and support from staff as they learn what it takes to organize communities and empirically measure success. We’re looking for self-motivated leaders who want to learn all facets of a campaign, from data/analytics to digital and grassroots organizing to communications.

If you're interested, sign up here to learn more: www.getcoveredamerica.org/fall-fellows
New Posting!

Republican National Committee

The Republican National Committee is seeking interns to work at the national headquarters in Washington, DC this fall. The program starts August 26th with full time and part time positions available in a variety of departments. Fall internships are unpaid but we do offer school credit. Qualified applicants should submit a resume, two letters of recommendation and a completed RNC Internship application (available for download at http://www.gop.com/internships) to internships@rnchq.org. More information can be found on our website at http://www.gop.com/internships.

Applications for the fall are accepted on a rolling basis and there is no official deadline; however, in order to ensure a timely review of your application materials, we recommend you submit your application materials early. Please contact the intern coordinator at (202)863-8630 if you have any questions.
New Posting!

Events Intern

Event-based communications firm, Chris Wayne & Associates (CWA), is seeking an energetic, and self-motivated Events Intern for the fall semester. The ideal candidate should have a strong interest in event management and communications. This person will develop skills in all aspects of event logistics, as he or she will participate in the various stages of event planning and management, from conception to execution. This opportunity is perfect for students who excel in a fast-paced team environment.

About CWA:
CWA is recognized around the world as a leader in event production, media strategies, and strategic visual messaging. The company has produced successful events in over 40 countries around the world - from press conferences, to opening ceremonies of sporting events, international summits and gala dinners. Over the past decade CWA has applied creative ideas, talented people, innovative production systems and state of the art technology to thousands of events.

Roles and Responsibilities:
• Assist in the planning and implementation of all CWA events for the fall semester, including on-site help for events in the D.C. area (2-3 per semester)
• Manage the day-of volunteer outreach program for all fall events, including but not limited to:
  - Recruit and maintain correspondence with volunteers leading up to each event
  - Oversee 20+ volunteers on-site with various onsite logistics
  - Follow up with volunteers after events through surveys and social media
  - Update volunteer records
• Work closely with vendors and company partners in planning details
• Research and compile data for possible venues and vendors for upcoming events
• Other office administrative tasks, as assigned

Requirements and Qualifications:
This internship is open to current undergraduate students or recent college graduates; majoring in event management, communications, or other related fields. Applicants must have excellent verbal and written communication skills, be highly organized, and maintain a strong and positive work ethic. Experience with Microsoft Word and Excel is required. A flexible schedule is also required on event days.

Internship Details:
The office is located in the heart of Georgetown. The Events Intern is required to spend a minimum of 20 hours per week assisting the CWA team. However, a flexible schedule is required around the time of events as longer hours may be required. This is an unpaid internship, however college credit is available.

Please email your resume and cover letter to Alice Chambers: a.chambers@cwassoc.com. Subject heading: Events Internship 2013. All applicants should be prepared to provide two references. No phone calls please.
New Posting!

Are you interested in making a difference in politics? Are you energetic and passionate about bettering your government for your own generation as well as those to come? Would you like to learn from the best and brightest in Washington D.C.? Then interning for the burgeoning political action committee Concord 51 is the perfect position for you!

Overall, Concord 51 is looking for young people with innovative ideas and excellent critical thinking skills who thrive in a team setting. As an intern you will always have the opportunity to make your voice heard and contribute directly to the day-to-day operations of Concord 51. Because this internship is on a part-time basis, it will be easy to fit it into your busy schedule, yet highly rewarding. You will also have the opportunity to socialize with, and learn from, our vast network of board members and young professionals. Although you will not be provided monetary compensation, you will come away from this internship not only with a valuable experience, but with valuable contacts as well.

Learn more about us at: http://concord51.com/

If you are interested in the position, please submit a resume and cover letter to Calvin Neo at cneo@concord51wa.com. Strong applicants will be asked to interview in person or by phone/Skype depending on location and availability.
Late August 2013

New Posting!

Faith in Public Life
Communications and Outreach Intern
www.faitnpubliclife.org

About Faith in Public Life:
Faith in Public Life is a strategy center that promotes faith in the public square as a positive and unifying force for justice, compassion and the common good. FPL has a strong record of mobilizing and amplifying progressive faith voices in the media, challenging the narrow agenda of the religious right and building diverse coalitions with national and state-based partners on moral issues such as health care, immigration reform and economic justice.

Following the 2004 election, when faith was often hijacked for partisan gain, a diverse group of 40 religious and social justice leaders founded Faith in Public Life to advance a positive alternative. Since then, FPL has emerged as the most influential faith-based organization building this burgeoning movement’s media presence and capacity, providing strategic assistance to faith-based coalitions, developing creative online communities and campaigns, and sponsoring groundbreaking opinion research.

Position Description
Faith in Public Life seeks a Communications and Outreach Intern to work 20 hours a week to provide support to our programmatic operations. This is an opportunity to gain communications and outreach experience by working with the leading organizations in the field of religion and politics.

This internship comes with a travel stipend of $800 per month contingent upon fulfilling 20 hours per week.

Start date for the fall semester is mid-September.

Responsibilities
- Assist FPL staff in identifying opportunities in the news and political environment to amplify the message of the faith leaders and organization
- Research different segments of the faith community to identify dynamic faith leaders working for justice and the common good
- Compile press lists and make pitch calls to media outlets
- Assist Communications Staff with social media tracking and outreach; assist Media Relations Associate in tracking media hits
- Assist FPL’s Senior Organizer in conducting outreach to strengthen relationships with our faith partners and cultivate new partners, generally via phone calls
Fall Semester GIPC Communications Intern –
Global Intellectual Property Center

DEPARTMENT OR DIVISION DESCRIPTION: The mission of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce’s Global Intellectual Property Center (GIPC) is to champion intellectual property (IP) as a vital tool to advance global economic growth, promote human progress, and create innovative solutions to global challenges. The goals of the Center are to document and explain the value of IP, ensure strong government support for IP in the United States, rally allied nations and organizations to defend IP, and hold governments accountable for IP protection.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Monitor IP-related media and compile daily GIPC press clips;
- Update and help maintain GIPC website/digital properties;
- Manage key media contacts database;
- Provide ad-hoc research and analysis on Congressional, Media, and IP-related issues;
- Disseminate public information including press releases, speeches, fact sheets, and media advisories to media gallery;
- Provide logistical support for GIPC events and programs;
- Provide written analysis and application of research to overall messaging of the GIPC;
- Prepare media briefing materials; and
- Administrative duties.

QUALIFICATIONS:
Candidates must have strong organizational, writing, communications, research and interpersonal skills. Undergraduates with an interest in media and/or IP is desired, but not necessary. This is a 20 hours/week paid internship for 2013 fall semester to begin in August/September.

Please submit your cover letter and resume to Ashley Mergen (AMergen@uschamber.com).
At PRECISION, we’re problem-solving partners. We help clients analyze and understand their audience. Articulate and amplify their message. Make technology an ally, not an obstacle. Turn supporters from passive fans to active evangelists for the client’s brand. We specialize in helping companies, causes, and campaigns devise precisely the right game plan for the brand’s success. And then we help our clients deploy it—online and off.

In reelecting President Barack Obama, Stephanie Cutter, Jen O’Malley Dillon and Teddy Goff pioneered the politics of precision—building and leading an unprecedented campaign to understand, reach and connect with more Americans than ever before.

PRECISION is now accepting applicants for full-time and part-time interns in our Washington, D.C. office. Our staff will work closely with our interns, exposing them to high-level work for a broad spectrum of clientele. Interns will be responsible for, but not limited to, conducting research, helping in communication strategy, supporting clients, digital outreach and administrative tasks.

Candidates must have exceptional written and verbal communication skills, be able to multi-task in a fast-paced environment, be comfortable working in both a group and independently, have strong research skills and demonstrate a strong ability to think creatively.

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, two references, and two writing samples to Lucy Silver (lucy@precisionstrategies.com) and Thomas Winslow (thomas@precisionstrategies.com). In your cover letter, please include your dates of availability. Ideally, all interns would start Tuesday, September 3rd.

Don’t just break through. Break new ground.

Washington, D.C. | New York, N.Y.
Progressive States Network (PSN) aims to provide an enriching experience for the intern looking to work in a fast-paced, collaborative environment while interacting with a nationwide audience. PSN seeks to expand and grow our network of progressive state lawmakers who are in partnership with other national and state level organizations committed to building a bold, progressive movement for change-state by state.

PSN blends analysis and action to provide coordinated strategic support for a network of state legislators, their staffs and advocacy groups, in order to equip them with strategic advocacy tools necessary for advancing key progressive economic and social policies. Interns will have the opportunity to work closely with our policy staff on a range of issues in the context of alliances with labor, civil rights, environmental and affordable housing organizations. We are looking for smart, creative thinkers and doers who want to learn how to help build and strengthen the progressive movement in this country.

Duties

- Assist PSN Staff in coordination of program logistics, political/legislative research, preparation of reports and other documentation, work on issues campaigns, drafting of internal and external communications, and various administrative duties.

Skills Required

- Motivated, organized self-starter and able to work well without constant supervision;
- Interest in progressive issues, public interest issues, electoral politics, and candidate development;
- Excellent written and verbal communication, outreach, phone and interpersonal skills;
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office;
- Ability to manage complex projects and hit deadlines;
- Ability to work well with a team under pressure;
- Excellent organizational skills and pays attention to detail;
- Willingness to handle a wide range of dynamic responsibilities;
- Ability to communicate respectfully and comfortably with people from diverse backgrounds;
- Ability to multi-task and work efficiently.

Location: The internship will be located in PSN’s national office, located in Washington DC.

Stipend: This is an unpaid internship for school credit.

Start Date: We accept applications on a rolling basis.

To Apply: Click here to submit your application (resume, cover letter, and three (3) references) or email your submission to jobs@progressivestates.org. Your cover letter should be limited to one page, explain in specific terms the reasons for your interest in the internship and must include your preferred start and end dates and hours during the week when you are available to work. Please include “INTERNSHIP APPLICATION – DC” in your subject line.

Progressive States Network is an equal opportunity employer.
New Posting!

MessageMe

MessageMe, a college marketing program is seeking highly motivated college students to promote MessageMe on George Washington University’s campus. MessageMe is a text messaging app available on iOS and Android that allows you to instantaneously share your voice through music, videos, photos, drawing doodles, sending stickers or sharing your location.

MessageMe is a uniquely intimate and expressive communication tool that allows you to stay connected with your friends and family quickly and efficiently.

What’s in it for you?
- Work Experience: gain valuable startup experience in marketing, product development, app scalability and growth.
- Satisfy internship requirement: This internship will fulfill internship requirements needed to graduate
- Resume endorsements/letter of recommendation: CEO/COO will write letter of recommendation and offer resume help for high performing campus founders.
- Land an internship in San Francisco, CA: Looking for a summer job? This could be your ticket into working at MessageMe if you’re a high performing campus founder.
- Mentorship: As the saying goes, ”it’s not what you know, it’s who you know” and this internship could lead to being introduced to our high profile executive and investment team.
- Money: Campus founders will earn a stipend for great work, likely $250 per challenge for 4 challenges. (more details if chosen)

What do you have to do? You have to be an active user of the app, meaning just using the app to text your friends on a daily basis. You will also compete in a series of challenges that are easily done at home, in between classes, while watching TV, etc.

You have to do your best to start using the app with your friends, increase brand awareness on campus and provide good product feedback on the app in terms of what you like and don’t like.

This really is an incredible opportunity to expand your network and meet some VERY influential people that are more than willing to help you get an internship or a full-time job at MessageMe or another company you may find interesting.

Interested? Please send an email to kevin@littleinc.com
Offering an opportunity to gain first-hand experience in the intersection of technology and politics.

Catalist is a data services company that offers progressive organizations and Democrats a unique and comprehensive database of voting-age Americans. We are presently seeking college students' recent graduates for paid full internship positions. Candidates should have a passion for progressive causes.

Skills preferred include familiarity with Microsoft Office Suite (especially Excel), good internet/database research experience, comfort with operating in a UNIX environment, familiarity with databases and database language SQL, familiarity with statistical modeling software (extra credit: candidates who are R users), quantitative research experience in social sciences, engineering, computer science, statistics, mathematics, life sciences technology, or similar field.

Experience with any of the following a plus: bash scripting, Python, C/C++, Ruby, GIS. Most importantly, though, we're looking for candidates who are highly motivated self-starters with a solid work ethic and a desire to learn. This position includes the potential for advancement into full-time work.

For more information on Catalist, including a list of the clients we work with, visit our website: www.catalist.us

Internship responsibilities could potentially include:

- Researching datasets and merging them with the current Catalist dataset
- Constructing database queries
- Statistical modeling and regression analysis
- Database hygiene, sanitization, and standardization
- Writing technical requirements for productization of departmental research projects
- Automating data reporting and statistical processes
- ETL on a variety of database platforms

Experience would be especially relevant to students studying Political Science, Statistics, Computer Science and related fields, however, interested applicants in all study areas are encouraged to apply.

We always make reasonable accommodations around student's academic schedules and are looking for a weekly commitment between 15-20 hrs.

Our offices are located near McPherson Square in downtown DC for easy Metro access.

Send your resume, including references, job and academic experience, to jobs@catalist.us.
New Posting!

The Institute for Educational Leadership

The Institute for Educational Leadership (IEL) seeks interns interested in learning more about and contributing to improved education, policy, and leadership development for work within multiple Centers/Programs:

- Center for Leadership and Policy – This Center emphasizes building and strengthening peer learning and action networks, informing leaders to make good policy decisions, and in the preparation of leaders who can move their agendas forward.

- Center for Family, School, and Community – with a focus on early childhood work as well as family engagement, this position offers an intern the ability to explore multiple programs and levels of education work.

Coalition for Community Schools (CCS) – housed at IEL, CCS envisions schools as centers of community where people and organizations from many different disciplines work with community residents, students and educators to help students succeed and build healthy families and communities.

- All interns take on independent research, planning and outreach tasks and support new and growing networks. Interns will also be exposed to the work of a non-profit. They will gain experience in development and skills to be more competitive in the job market. Interns will have opportunities to attend meetings centered on education, policy, and related subjects.

These internships are ideal for students of government or education who are interested in public policy, education reform, and family and community outreach. Interns should have excellent writing skills, research capabilities, be detail oriented, and the ability to work on a team and individually. Interns must possess outstanding office and phone manners in addition to being well-organized, punctual, dependable, flexible, and willing to take initiative. We offer a supportive and fun office environment, where interns will gain valuable experience in education policy and reform. Our interns tell us they have lots of fun, and do less 'grunt' work than in their peers.

IEL is willing to act as a supervisor to assure that any undergraduate can receive academic credit. Fall applicants accepted now! Please visit our website for more information about IEL. www.iel.org/www.communityschools.org This internship is unpaid.

Applications should contain a cover letter explaining your interest in one or more of the internships, resume, and available hours. Applications may be sent to ccs@iel.org (note please make the email Subject Line: IEL Internship) or via mail to Attn: Heather Naviasky 4301 Connecticut Avenue, NW Suite 100 Washington, DC 20008
Ken Cuccinelli for Governor of Virginia is looking for interns! Email GOPIntern2013@gmail.com to apply for any of the following positions. All positions are located in Springfield, VA, close to a mile from the metro. The VA Governor’s race is the marquee race of the country, being the only competitive 2013 election. Located in Northern VA, this fast-paced and exciting environment will reward and provide opportunity to individuals with strong work ethics. These are great opportunities to network, break in to the politics, and receive positive recommendations. Ideal candidates will have positive attitudes and be self-motivated, organized, and think for themselves.

Digital Outreach Assistant & Analyst
Cuccinelli’s campaign is looking for positive, hard-working digital interns! This is a great opportunity for someone interested in a digital career to get their foot in the door and gain experience. Interns will be given higher-level opportunities as they prove their quality of work, and they will be provided networking opportunities! Interns will be able to: analyze data, put reports together, make recommendations, help manage social platforms, post content on the website, go out to field offices and educate others on using online platforms, create graphics, manage online outreach, and more! Upon completion, the Digital Director will help them put together portfolios, go through mock interviews with them, review their resumes, and provide them recommendations and job leads. School credit is also possible.

Communications Assistant
The ideal candidate will have a positive attitude and be self-motivated, organized, think for themselves. Strong writing skills and computer skills (experience with Microsoft Office and the Internet) are a must; as is attention to detail. The position will offer experience in several different fields of communication work, including social media, earned media, and research.

Finance & Event Management Assistant for Cuccinelli for Governor (VA)
Access to transportation is required. Experience with event management is a plus. Experience with Microsoft Office and the Internet are a must; as is attention to detail.

Campaign Operations Assistant
The ideal candidate will have a positive attitude and be self-motivated, organized, think for themselves. Strong writing skills and computer skills (experience with Microsoft Office and the Internet) are a must; as is attention to detail.
Advanced Network Strategies is a Democratic Campaign Fundraising firm located on Capitol Hill specializing in contributions from interest groups. The firm's ten clients cover a wide range of knowledge, expertise, and geography. Its client roster currently boasts 9 Members of Congress including Mike Thompson (CA), Bennie Thompson (MS), Collin Peterson (MN), John Larson (CT), Emanuel Cleaver (MO), Hank Johnson (GA), Jim Cooper (TN), Janice Hahn (CA), Luis Gutierrez (IL), and Marcia Fudge (OH). While specializing in fundraising here in Washington, DC, ANS also handles our clients’ events across the country.

Our internship provides a high level of exposure to the political process for students interested in a career in politics. Interns will interact with Members of Congress, Lobbyists, and Hill Staffers on a daily basis. Additionally, the firm consists of only two paid employees, making our intern a valuable and necessary part of the office. While the job does include some data entry, the vast majority of our intern’s responsibilities involve direct interaction with our clients and potential contributors. Interns will be responsible for planning and executing fundraisers, conducting research on potential donors, staffing Members of Congress, as well as soliciting contributions from interest groups and individuals. This is an unpaid internship.

The ideal candidate would be well-versed in current events (e.g. read a newspaper daily), have excellent phone presence, be able to multi-task in a fast-paced environment, be responsive and decisive. Because our interns spend so much of their time interacting with Members and their staffs, candidates must be mature, professional, and a quick-study.

To apply, please send a copy of your resume to Julie Vieburg at JVieburg@gmail.com.
Internship in Democratic Fundraising Firm – The Kauffman Group

Internship opportunity in a small, fast-paced Democratic fundraising firm working directly for the National Finance Directors and Deputies to raise money for a variety of Democratic Senators. Interns will assist in all aspects of planning and implementing fundraising events including: making fundraising calls, overseeing logistical details, maintaining commitment sheets and implementing donor follow up plans. They will also build relationships with co-hosts and coordinate with them prior to and during events.

Interns will have the chance to attend fundraising events and help on site. They will help write detailed briefings for candidates, research donor history, assist in creation of call sheets for candidates, maintain call book and record of receipts from national donors, and assist in resolution of national compliance issues.

The internship is available in September. Please send a resume and cover letter to Josh Kramer at josh@kauffmangroup.net.

Josh Kramer
The Kauffman Group
(202) 544-7708 office
(650) 814-8092 mobile
Moderate House Democrat Seeks Fall Interns

Moderate Senior Democratic member seeks unpaid interns for Fall 2013 (approx. Sept. – Dec.) in a fast-paced Congressional Office where they will gain valuable exposure to and knowledge of the legislative process and the United States Congress.

Applicants should be positive, motivated, organized, and reliable individuals to assist with the legislative and administrative needs of the staff. Duties include greeting constituents, attending briefings, answering phones, performing legislative research, leading tours of the Capitol, opening and sorting mail, and various other tasks. Applicants must be proficient in Microsoft Word with strong written and oral communications skills. Successful interns will be able to find information with little assistance, be able to work both independently as well as part of a team environment, and with strong attention to detail. Northern California connections preferable.

Please send resume, cover letter, availability, and a one page writing sample to repmikethompson.intern@gmail.com with “Fall Internship” in the subject line. No phone calls please.

Casey Badmington
Congressman Mike Thompson (CA-05)
231 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515
casey.badmington@mail.house.gov
New Posting!

International Association of Chiefs of Police

Each semester the International Association of Chiefs of Police hires a select number of students (graduate and undergraduate) from colleges and universities across the country. Internships are located in Alexandria, Virginia, and last approximately 12 weeks, with room for flexibility depending on needs or requirements of the student. Interns are afforded a flexible work schedule with a maximum 32 hour work week and earn $12 per hour. Most applicants seek credited internships; however, non-credit applicants are also accepted. Housing, transportation, and reserved parking are not provided.

Assignments vary each semester due to the programmatic demands of the eight divisions of the IACP and the project priorities of each of these divisions. Intern responsibilities will also vary based on the project and manager to which the intern is assigned. Interns may be assigned to work on one priority project or a portfolio of efforts. Administrative and law enforcement leadership topics with which interns are involved include: legislative initiatives, global policing, gun violence, victim response, executive mentoring, violence against women, intelligence/information sharing, terrorism and homeland security.

During each semester, in addition to their assigned duties, interns will have the opportunity to participate in a ride-along with an area police department; take at least one educational field trip (for example, a visit to the National Firearms Training Center or a meeting on Capitol Hill); and participate in other professional development opportunities as they arise. IACP firmly believes that a successful internship program must ensure that students learn and participate fully in the work of the association. Internships conclude with exit interviews and an intern questionnaire.

Internship applications can be submitted to internprogram@theiacp.org or by mail at:
Internship Coordinator
International Association of Chiefs of Police
515 N. Washington Street
Alexandria, VA 22314

For more information please contact Jenny Gargano at internprogram@theiacp.org or call 1-800-THE-IACP (1-800-843-4227 ext. 392). See more at: http://www.theiacp.org/Jobs/Internships/tabid/476/Default.aspx#sthash.b98UsTht.dpuf
New Posting!

INTERNSHIP

Progressive States Network (PSN) aims to provide an enriching experience for the intern looking to work in a fast-paced, collaborative environment while interacting with a nationwide audience. PSN seeks to expand and grow our network of progressive state lawmakers who are in partnership with other national and state level organizations committed to building a bold, progressive movement for change-state by state.

PSN blends analysis and action to provide coordinated strategic support for a network of state legislators, their staffs and advocacy groups, in order to equip them with strategic advocacy tools necessary for advancing key progressive economic and social policies. Interns will have the opportunity to work closely with our policy staff on a range of issues in the context of alliances with labor, civil rights, environmental and affordable housing organizations. We are looking for smart, creative thinkers and doers who want to learn how to help build and strengthen the progressive movement in this country.

Duties

- Assist PSN Staff in coordination of program logistics, political/legislative research, preparation of reports and other documentation, work on issues campaigns, drafting of internal and external communications, and various administrative duties.

Skills Required

- Motivated, organized self-starter and able to work well without constant supervision;
- Interest in progressive issues, public interest issues, electoral politics, and candidate development;
- Excellent written and verbal communication, outreach, phone and interpersonal skills;
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office;
- Ability to manage complex projects and hit deadlines;
- Ability to work well with a team under pressure;
- Excellent organizational skills and pays attention to detail;
- Willingness to handle a wide range of dynamic responsibilities;
- Ability to communicate respectfully and comfortably with people from diverse backgrounds;
- Ability to multi-task and work efficiently.

Location: The internship will be located in PSN’s national office, located in Washington DC.

Stipend: $375 per week (based on 40 hours per week, although part time positions are available). Pay is prorated.

Start Date: We accept applications on a rolling basis.

To Apply: Click here to submit your application (resume, cover letter, and three (3) references) or email your submission to jobs@progressivestates.org. Your cover letter should be limited to one page, explain in specific terms the reasons for your interest in the internship and must include your preferred start and end dates and hours during the week when you are available to work. Please include “INTERNSHIP APPLICATION – DC” in your subject line.

Progressive States Network is an equal opportunity employer.
GW's Office of Educational Support Services for Student Athletes
Seeks Tutors in ALL Subjects

Specific Needs: Accountancy Courses, Writing, All Math Courses, Sign Language, Physics, Chemistry, Economics.

Flexible hours and competitive hourly rates.

If interested, please contact Danya Ellman at dellman@gwu.edu for more information.

No Walk-In Appointments, Please email with questions.
Fellowships and Career Fairs

New Posting!

GWU FALL 2013 CAREER & INTERNSHIP FAIR

Thursday, September 12, 2013
1-5pm
Charles E. Smith Center
600 22nd Street, NW

Employers from more than 120 diverse organizations are expected to attend

RSVP NOW in the GWork Events Calendar: gwork.gwu.edu (or your appropriate school-based GWork portal)

MORE INFO and tips, including on how to dress and how to prepare: gwired.gwu.edu/career/fairs

(info on the organizations that have registered so far and the positions for which they are hiring so that you can be prepared to strategically interact with those employers with whom you have an interest.)

Once again, the Fair will feature:
LinkedIn Professional Photo Booth!
Get a free professional headshot for your LinkedIn profile
Stop by the booth at any time during the fair!

Sponsored by GW Alumni Relations

See you at the Fair!
GW Center for Career Services | gwired.gwu.edu/career/fairs

RSVP NOW in GWork (or your school's GWork entry portal, if different) - the fair is in less than 1 month!
New Posting!

INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY
STUDENT PROGRAMS VIRTUAL FAIR

U.S. citizenship is required

LEARN ABOUT INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES FOR STUDENTS ONLINE

The United States Intelligence Community (IC), an integrated network of agencies that work together to protect our nation's security, has internship and scholarship opportunities for students. Join us at the IC Student Programs Virtual Fair to see how you can participate.

Internship and co-operative education opportunities are available for undergraduate and graduate students majoring in the following areas:

- Accounting and Finance
- Business Administration
- Chemistry
- Computer Science
- Data Science
- Economics
- Engineering (Computer, Electrical, Mechanical and Power)
- Environmental Science
- Foreign Languages
- Geology
- Information Assurance
- Intelligence/National Security Studies
- International Affairs
- Mathematics
- Operations Research
- Physics
- Political Science

Scholarships are available for students studying chemistry, computer science, electrical engineering, foreign languages, geology, international affairs, intelligence/national security studies, and political science.

The following IC agencies will be participating in the fair:

- Central Intelligence Agency (CIA)
- Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA)
- Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)
- National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency (NGA)
- National Security Agency (NSA)

Use your computer or mobile device to:

- Visit IC agencies' virtual booths to learn about internships and scholarships
- Attend live presentations
- Link to agency websites and online application systems

*This list is not meant to be all inclusive and similar majors will be considered. Not all participating IC agencies have opportunities in all listed majors. U.S. citizenship is required.

The United States Intelligence Community is an Equal Opportunity Employer and a Drug-Free Workplace
Planned Parenthood Action Fund Election Fellow Application

Paying attention to the governor’s race happening in our good neighbor Virginia? Want your voice heard on issues like WOMEN’S RIGHTS, LGBT ISSUES, IMMIGRATION, & HEALTHCARE? Then DO SOMETHING about it! Here’s your chance:

Planned Parenthood Action Fund is providing an exciting opportunity this fall! The Election Fellow program is designed for individuals who want to learn how to turn their reproductive justice values into action. The commitment includes:

- 20 hours per week from Sept. 9th – November 5th
- Recruiting and managing volunteers
- Get out the Vote work including phonebanking and canvassing

Most efforts will be directed towards the Virginia Gubernatorial election in support of Terry McAuliffe. Please apply here (https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1sKP1NZkf-GX5hsUguhn-ro17NQvAo2-H3SePQQ_5XE/viewform).

The deadline to apply is August 30th. Please direct questions to Kayla Calkin at Kayla.calkin@ppfa.org. Thank you!